To continue and amend the Laws relating to Yeomanry Corps in Ireland.

Note.—The Words printed in Italics are proposed to be inserted in the Committee.

WH HEREBY an Act was made in the forty-third year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Third, intitled, “An Act for authorizing such Troops of Yeomanry and “Volunteer Cavalry as may be desirous of assembling for the purpose
5 “of being trained together in Great Britain and Ireland, and for sub“jecting to military discipline during the War such Sergeants serving “in any Volunteer or Yeomanry Corps of Cavalry or Infantry as “received constant Pay, and all Trumpeters, Drummers or Buglemen “serving therein and receiving Pay at any daily or weekly rate, and for 10 “the further regulating of such Yeomanry and Cavalry Corps,” which Act was to continue and be in force during the continuance of the war, and until six months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace with France:

Preamble,
43 Geo. 3.

And whereas by an Act made in the fifty-sixth year of his said late 15 Majesty's reign, so much of the said recited Act of the said forty-third year as relates to such Troops or Corps in Ireland, was further continued and was amended:

54 Geo. 3.

And whereas by an Act made in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, the said recited Act of the forty-third year of his late 20 Majesty's reign, so far as relates to any such Troops or Corps in Ireland, and also the said Act of the fifty-sixth year of his late Majesty's reign, so far as the same amends the said Act of the forty-third year, were amended, and were continued as so amended, and are in force until the end of the present session of Parliament:

4 Geo. IV.

247.

And

And whereas it is expedient that the said recited Acts of the forty-third and fifty-sixth years of his said late Majesty's and of the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, so far as relates to any such Troops or Corps of Yeomanry in Ireland, should be further continued, and should be amended; ~~and it is therefore Enacted~~, by The KING's most Excellent MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, THAT the said recited Act of the forty-third year of his said late Majesty's reign, so far as relates to any such Troops or Corps in Ireland, and also the said Act of the fifty-sixth year of his said late Majesty's reign, and the said Act of the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, so far as the same amend the said Act of the said forty-third year, shall be and the same are hereby continued as amended by this Act; and the said Acts shall be and remain and continue in force during the continuance of this Act; and that all such provisions and regulations in the said recited Act of the said forty-third year contained, so far as relates to such Troops or Corps in Ireland, as by the said Act are applied during war, or during the continuance of war, and until six months after the ratification of such definitive treaty of peace as aforesaid, shall, during the continuance of this Act be in force, as amended by the said recited Acts of the fifty-sixth year of his late Majesty's reign, and of the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, and by this Act.

Lord Lieutenant may dismiss Officers

And be it Enacted and Declared, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to dismiss any officer of any Corps of Yeomanry in Ireland, at any time when such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors shall think fit and proper so to do.

Continuance of Act.

And be it further Enacted, That this Act shall continue in force for Five years from the passing thereof, and from the expiration of such Five years until the End of the then next Session of Parliament.
